

Job Vacancy Announcement

Available Position:

Mechanic

Company Profile:

Rick Breeding Excavating, Inc. is a family owned excavation company that has been in business for over twenty years. We complete residential, commercial, and agricultural projects for various customers on the Delmarva Peninsula, and have traveled as far as Owings Mills, MD and inside the Washington beltway for satisfied repeat customers. We specialize in providing turnkey residential and commercial site work packages.

Job Description:

A mechanic is responsible for making repairs, as well as developing and overseeing other maintenance personnel. A mechanic must have a strong mechanical aptitude with knowledge of electronic and hydraulic systems in addition to diesel engines and transmissions. A mechanic must also have knowledge in repair and maintenance of excavation equipment such as backhoes, bulldozers, excavators, loaders and small equipment.

Qualifications and skills:

A candidate should possess the following qualifications:

- A minimum of 2 years mechanical equipment maintenance.
- Equipment operation experience.
- Attention to detail.
- Good visual & listening abilities.
- Effective communication.
- Ability to lift object of various weights.
- Valid driver's license.
- Must work well with others.

Position Benefits:

- Competitive salary negotiable based on experience.
- Health insurance is available after 90 days of employment.
- Company vehicle.
- Opportunity for overtime.

Interested Parties Should:

Send applications and experience checklist with a copy of your driver's license to Rick Breeding via fax or email.

Fax: 410-479-0079

Email: jrbei@verizon.net